Gender balance on teams achieves better outcomes. OUR ULTIMATE GOAL IS PARITY BUT OUR MINIMUM UK OBJECTIVES BY 2023 ARE:

Beyond 30% representation of women on all FTSE 350 boards, to include one person of colour

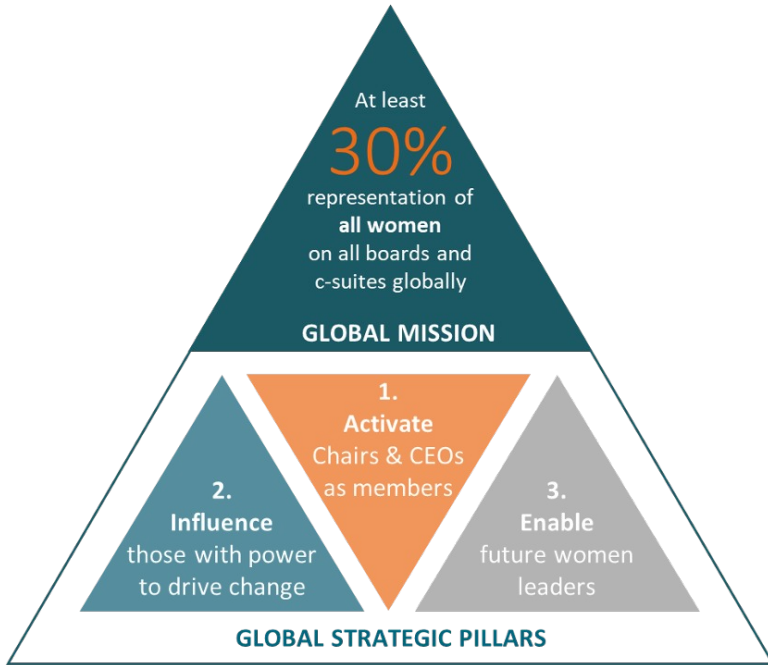

We support the Parker Review goals for at least one person of colour on every FTSE 350 board - in addition, we advocate for gender balance with half these seats going to women, creating 175 board seats for women of colour.

Beyond 30% representation of women on all FTSE 350 Executive Committees, to include one person of colour

With half these roles going to women, creating 175 ExCo roles for women of colour.

Beyond 30% of all new FTSE 350 Chair appointments to go to women between 2020 and 2023

OUR MISSION

True balance is
goal

We support diversity in its very broadest sense and while gender has been our starting point, we fully realise that considerations of ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, socioeconomic background and beyond are all part of the journey - and that gender identities are themselves evolving rapidly. We also fully appreciate that 30% is a pivotal point, but it is not the finish line.

WHO WE ARE

LEADERS LEADING BY EXAMPLE

We are a group of more than 1,000 Chairs and CEOs taking action to increase gender diversity on UK boards and senior management teams.

The 30% Club campaign was set up by Dame Helena Morrissey in 2010 with the aim of achieving a minimum of 30% female representation on FTSE 100 boards. That original target was reached in September 2018 and good progress has been made since then, but there is still much more work to do to achieve better gender balance at the top of businesses.

Now under Ann Cairns' leadership, our energies remain concentrated on supporting more women into senior roles, both executive and non-executive, and to encouraging organisations to foster truly inclusive cultures - cultures that embrace women who look, act and, importantly, THINK differently - so that they can reach their full potential to positively impact their people, their markets and their communities.

OUR APPROACH

THE BUSINESS CASE FOR DIVERSITY IN SENIOR ROLES IS CLEAR

The business case is clear – a higher standard of corporate governance, improved financial performance and enhanced capacity to attract and retain female talent.

Diverse teams make better decisions: McKinsey research continues to show a significant link between diversity and financial performance, with companies in the top quartile for gender diversity 25% more likely to outperform their national industry median EBIT margin than their bottom quartile peers; likewise companies in top quartile for ethnic diversity are 36% more likely to financially outperform their peers (Diversity Wins, McKinsey & Company, 2020).

Similarly Credit Suisse found that companies where women made up at least 15% of senior managers had more than 50% higher profitability than those where female representation was less than 10% (CS Gender 3000: The Reward for Change, Credit Suisse, 2016).

One woman is not enough: 30% is the proportion when the contributions of a member of a minority group are valued in their own right. Research suggests that a critical mass of three or more women can cause a fundamental change in the boardroom and enhance corporate governance.

BEYOND 30% REPRESENTATION OF WOMEN ON ALL FTSE 350 BOARDS BY 2023, AND TO INCLUDE ONE PERSON OF COLOUR

OUR BOARDROOM GOAL

September 2019 saw women’s representation on FTSE 350 boards reach an average of 30% for the first time in history. While we celebrate this milestone, this target was a minimum and there is still much work to do, not least of which on ethnic representation – only 178 board positions in the FTSE 350 are held by directors of colour, with just 77 of those positions held by female directors of colour (Parker Review, November 2020). Furthermore, there are still 90 FTSE 350 companies at less than 30% women on boards. But as of February 2021, there is at least no FTSE 350 company with an all-male board and the number of all-male ExCos is falling.

BEYOND 30% REPRESENTATION OF WOMEN ON ALL FTSE 350 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES BY 2023, AND TO INCLUDE ONE PERSON OF COLOUR

OUR PIPELINE GOAL

With just 22% of FTSE 350 Executive Committee roles currently (as of 1 July 2021) held by women, achieving at least 30% by 2023 represents a significant but achievable challenge.

Driving progress will require ongoing investment from CEOs and leadership teams in developing the pipeline of female directors. It will also require demand by investors, leadership from board chairs, commitment by nominations committees and action from head hunters, and of course it also requires ongoing investment from CEOs and leadership teams in developing the pipeline of female directors.

INVEST OR GROUP

Statement of Intent

As listed owners and asset managers we are responsible for the stewardship of the investments we make on behalf of our members and clients. Part of that responsibility includes the oversight of the boards of our investee companies. There is increasing research to support this proposition.

As investors, we support the vision of the 30% Club which is "to achieve a minimum of 30% female on boards."

DISCLOSURE EXPECTATIONS

As part of our overall governance strategy and reports, we will actively engage with governance teams including the proxy committee for the board.

To provide insights with our members in timely updates, we will regularly report the progress and to our proxy voters in our reports. We will also disclose insights on the progress of the 30% Club. Further details of disclosure will seek to be published on our website.

BARRIERS TO PROGRESSION

The reasons Chairs and Non-Executive Directors (NEDs) use as to why they can't or won't appoint female directors to their boards.

This booklet has been compiled from conversations that our 30% Club Education Working Group members and other female non-executive directors associated with the 30% Club have had with listed company chairs and non-executive directors as to why they can't or won't appoint female directors to their boards. There were common reasons, heard at different times by all of the contributors.

All of the reasons reflect a belief that women represent the best directors or can't contribute effectively. The reasons given that demonstrate a lack of understanding of the benefits of the business benefits of gender diversity and a lack of understanding of the business benefits of gender diversity are the most common. WE HAVE NOT COMPLETED SEARCH AND HAVE NO CANDIDATES FOR THE ROLE

One of the reasons given by Chairs and NEDs for not appointing women to their boards is that they have not completed a search and have no candidates for the role. This is often the case for roles that require specific skills or experience. The reasons given for not completing a search are often related to a lack of time or resources.
